SHOVE CHAPEL ... AGAINST THE BACKGROUND OF PIKES PEAK

CUTLER HALL

Headed by The NUGGET staff, we, the Juniors, present to you, the Seniors, this edition for your pleasure and hope that we have condensed (due to the war and priorities) something vital for you to cherish and to bring to the attention of everyone the all important fact that C.C. has kept "in the swing of things" during these months of crisis, both on campus and off campus.

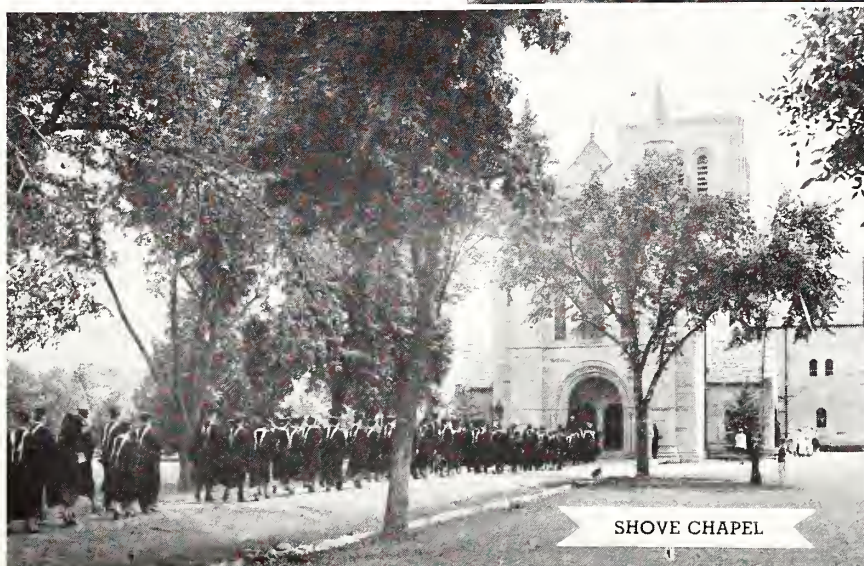

A nugget is a gold piece, and we sincerely hope that this NUGGET will pan out to be a true gold piece for you.

● THE NUGGET

Read it . . . and laugh. Read it . . . and weep . . . but whatever you do going on "in the swing of things" . . . on in life . . . this book will still be a glorified scrap-book for you to turn to to recall a face . . . name . . . event . . . organization. It may make you sad . . . but, deep down, there will be a warm, friendly glow because, after all . . . the things contained herein are the things that will always stand out in the memory of your college career.

"IN THE SWING OF THINGS"

Life goes on at C.C., in spite of the war, with the various campus organizations doing war work of all kinds, such as junior hostessing, knitting and nurse aiding. Not to be outdone, C.C. is "keeping in the swing of things". Rigorous calisthenics are building he-men of those who are waiting for their calls, while they also keep on with their studies, and the girls are thinking about the different women's auxiliary corps.

Each person on campus is mindful of world conditions and is seeking to do what will best serve this wonderful country in which we live.

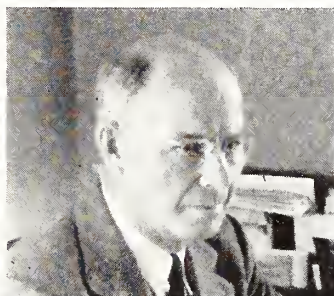

PRESIDENT DAVIES

With his smiling face and friendly manner . . . Prexy was to each student more like one of them than President of their college. In February . . . Prexy saw a greater duty and became Major Davies of the U. S. Marines. The campus isn't quite the same without him . . . but we know that he's doing a bigger job where he is now . . . and it's up to us who are left here to continue with the spirit of enthusiasm with which he imbued us. His C.C. spirit was not just an ordinary feeling of love for college . . . it was, and still is, an intense interest in each student . . . how the school can help him and he the school. Besides all this is his desire to have everyone know and love C.C. as he does. There is much more to his spirit than can be written . . . but we all know that with our Prexy in the Marines . . . helping to win the war . . . the "swing" to victory can't be far off.

PETERSON, DILTS AND GAMMON
Commissioners

SENIORS

Dignity and thought (sometimes), and the rush to get through college before being drafted into the Army or into war work . . . positions of new authority . . . controlling the TIGER, A.S.C.C., sororities and fraternities, councils, committees and the morale of the college . . . with Dale Peterson, Frances Jane Dilts and Rod Gammon as class commissioners. From the ever thinning ranks emerge the "Coeds of the Week." The necessity for revisions in schedules . . . overlooking some courses and taking others newly required to meet service demands. Bemused tolerance for far-off frosh frivolity . . . frivolity of the senior brand manifested in a surprise "sneak day" . . . too much to do, too little time in which to do it . . . a welcome Christmas recess brings more time for study, more study for time. An early winter slump as the class of '43 enters its year . . . cold weather and dreams of spring . . . panic as that crucial time draws near . . . colds, cramming and comps . . . relief, disappoint'ment, celebration and dissipation. They have reached their goal . . . or lost it . . . and the last of four great years is part of the past . . . they are the world's . . . and the world is theirs.

Juniors . . .

return to new precedence, new loneliness, and new, confusing scholarships . . . invasion of A. S. C. C., NUGGET, and official positions in and about the campus . . . the thrill of registering for those "3—" courses . . . thin ranks, mostly feminine, and the few remaining men entranced with freshman girls. Herb Vandemoer, "Cheesie" Kraft and Fritz Minuth are chosen to guide the class. Chapel takes on new meaning, beauty and visibility from near-front pews . . . no required assembly . . . a sense of freedom and an adult feeling . . . study, less play, and more study plus a serious and imagined dignity . . . for the first time, no awarding of A.A. degrees. Christmas holidays . . . juniors caught between momentous projects in their major subjects and many small ones in their underclass courses envy sophs. The Junior Prom and the thrill of a new season . . . spring . . . more studies . . . determination . . . deference to seniors studying for comprehensives . . . much consternation . . . then suddenly, more suddenly than ever before, the junior year is over.

YOUNG, ROBERTS, SCRUGGS

SOPHOMORES ..

Determined blase poses give way to the enthusiasm of a new year . . . new chapel seats, new self-importance, new venom for unlucky frosh . . . the freshman-sophomore fracas hatches plans of fiendish cunning and victory. Class commissioners, Jeanne Roberts, George Scruggs and Gene Young, take the helm. Assemblies . . . the other side of the belt line . . . sophomore day with hideous plaids, stripes and checks worn violently together. Christmas sneaks up, and the many small assignments make sophs, in the throes of feverish study, envy juniors with one large project . . . ah, well . . . next year. Back to lessons, learning, Lennox and 1943 . . . snowballs, skiing and skating . . . spring and growing pains, pins, indolence, blue skies and green-up time . . . the last few weeks of being an underclassman with the future looming close.

Freshmen..

Green ribbons, black sweaters, cords and beanies . . . bewilderment . . . rush week . . . first independence . . . new friends . . . late hours . . . much talk . . . pledge pins . . . paddles . . . belts . . . an ever lengthening run from Perkins' assemblies to the Chapel intersection . . . the freshman-sophomore fracas lost, Washington's birthday moves into eternity. Long labs . . . weekly themes . . . the term paper is met and conquered —sometimes . . . the beginnings of success or failure. Susie McPhee, Paul Rodden and Dick Fryer become class commissioners. Living is easy and life far away . . . the 18-19 year old draft, and a few enlist. Christmas recess . . . pros level both barrels . . . frantic studying at home, homesick for school. First exams . . . the ranks thin . . . ribbons and cords are shed . . . and freshmen are human beings. Spring . . . pledge pins are exchanged for more permanent makes and often pass on again . . . green-up time . . . one last spurt . . . cramming into the night, and it's all over . . . the most glorious year of college.

KOSHARE

"THE GABBLERS"

Fourteenth year for this dramatic organization . . . Koshare has its headquarters in Bemis basement . . . presents plays to the college and to the public at the Fine Art Center . . . members earn grades for their initiation. Visiting Professor Arch Lauterer took over . . . new ideas . . . different types of plays . . . new stage settings . . . lights. The war influences were felt as difficulties were encountered . . . a long Christmas vacation cutting out one play . . . town students spent the holidays practicing for another one . . . plays recast . . . scarcity of stage crews . . . costumes . . . tickets.

Students awaited with interest the first play of the season . . . "The Comedy Sketch Book" . . . three plays . . . "The Gabblers" , "The Marvelous Spectacle" by Cervantes, "Maybe It's Better That Way" by Milt Goss . . . simplicity . . . brief sketches . . . excellent casts . . . cleverly designed stage settings . . . surprising to audience but not too well understood by it . . . a different type of plays from those given in previous years.

"ARMS AND THE MAN"

"FIRE ON THE CAUCASUS"

"Prometheus Bound," a Greek tragedy adapted to the modern stage and renamed "Fire on the Caucasus" . . . bearing an amazing relationship to present day activities . . . action takes place where the Russians and Germans are fighting now . . . ancient characters are unmistakably identified with the dictators and Quislings of our day . . . scenery well adapted . . . first speaking chorus to appear on the Art Center stage.

Next . . . "Arms and the Man" by Shaw . . . a romantic military comedy . . . flavor of musical . . . same plot as "The Chocolate Soldier" . . . equally successful . . . witty . . . gay costumes . . . beautifully staged . . . entire production well done.

Arch Lauterer, master craftsman . . . surprised and pleased audiences throughout the season . . . presenting an entirely new aspect. Colorado College experienced, for the first time, the true depth and art of the drama.

Our 33rd Year.

Miss Helen Jean Anderson,
Co-Editor of FEATURES,
Pikes Peak Nugget Colorado College,
Colorado Springs, Colorado

Dear Miss Anderson:

At long last, Mr. Long and myself have made the decision with which you have honored us. We don't mind telling you that the choice was a difficult one to make, since all we had to go by were the descriptions you sent us and the three photographs of each girl.

Our choice was made not only by attractiveness of the portraits, but by the general figures of the girls, as well as the symmetry of their features. Taking all these things into consideration, we spent a good deal of time in order that we might make the proper selection. After much deliberation we have chosen Ida Myrtle White for beauty queen. We believe that she surpasses any of the other four contestants from all of the standpoints upon which we judged the girls.

We believe that Miss White has the most nearly photographic face of any of these five girls. If you will notice closely, you will see the fine symmetry in her face that photographers so often seek to find when looking for a model.

Her general posture and proportion also seem to fit more nearly the photographer's ideals.

You ask for some information regarding our Company. Our firm is one of the largest commercial studios in the country. One of the greater parts of our business is our Illustration Department, which Mr. Long heads.

Mr. Long is a Master Photographer and has photographed many thousands of women, and I feel sure that he did his utmost to make a fair decision for you.

Both Mr. Long and myself want to thank you again for this opportunity, and hope that we have been of some help to you.

● HAROLD A. WHITE...

came to Colorado College this year with a dazzling high school coaching record . . . became the fourth head football coach the Tigers have had in four seasons. Coach White played football and basketball at Northwestern in the Big Ten . . . 1923 to 1926 . . . is well known for the actions of his Salida High School team which, in 7 seasons, chalked up 6 league titles, 3 state championships, and won 39 games without a loss.

● ALLISON BINNS...

Another newcomer to the coaching staff . . . filled the positions of basketball coach and assistant football coach. Binns played football and basketball for four seasons under Coach White . . . was a member of his state championship football team in 1933. At Denver University . . . varsity fullback for three years and called signals.

With the fourth new coaching staff in four years . . . practically a complete new line-up and a new system of play . . . Colorado College launched this year's season. With Coach White came the spectacular "T" formation used with extreme success by many professional and collegiate teams.

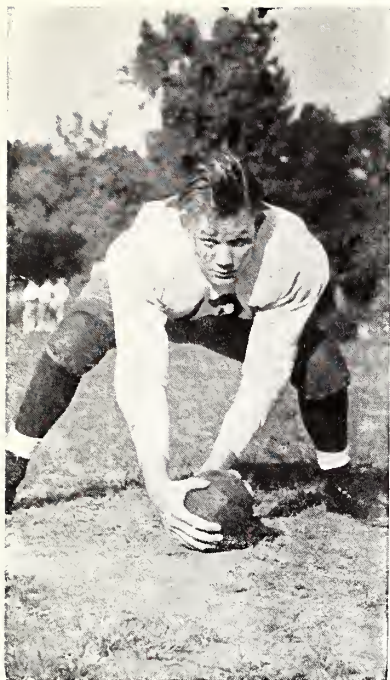

Of big help to the team was the new Rocky Mountain Conference ruling . . . allowing the addition of freshman players to the varsity eleven. Without this innovation . . . C. C. fans might indeed have witnessed a bleak season. Practices started with Dale Peterson and Bill Goodnight . . . the only returning players with several seasons' experience. They were backed up by a strong array of experienced juniors: Fritz Minuth, Kenny Moore, Dave Friend, Ben Hall, John Haggin, Bill Clark and Herb Vandemoer.

With all of the 1941 backfield gone . . . Fritz Minuth took over the quarterback position . . . and Captain Goodnight became the important pivot-man. With the exception of Peterson playing left end, the Tigers opened with a completely new line-up.

In the first game of the season . . . Fort Hayes went down before the well functioning Bengal "T" formation. The lighter Tiger line managed to outrush the opposing forward wall throughout the game . . . making it possible for the "T" to function. The first Tiger score was made in the second quarter . . . John Haggin went over left side for a touchdown . . . Kenny Moore scored the conversion. In the third quarter . . . after an advance of 47 yards on passes . . . Moore made the remaining 27 yards to the goal with running drives . . . going over from the three-yard line to set the game's scoring at 13 to 0.

Next game of the season . . . Regis College of Denver very nearly upset C. C. when, with the score tied 7 to 7 in the fourth quarter, it took to the air . . . threatening the C. C. goal. This last quarter attempt was unsuccessful . . . and the final tally read the 7 to 7 tie. The C. C. points were scored by Minuth and Moore . . . Minuth making the 6 on a quarter-back sneak . . . Moore converting. The Tigers might possibly have been able to have stretched this game into a win had it not been for the fact that Kenny Moore, Walt Viebrock and Glenn Hickey were benched by injuries.

The Tigers took their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Peterson Field eleven . . . 7 to 6.

The Flyers . . . outweighing our eleven on an average of twenty pounds . . . made their score in the first period when a punt from Minuth on the twenty-yard line was blocked and rolled into the end zone and recovered by an aviator. Several other threats from the Flyers were stopped. The Tigers came back in the third period . . . covering 65 yards in two plays for a touchdown. The first play . . . a Minuth to Peterson pass . . . net'ed 18 yards . . . then, Kenny Moore, fullback, broke into the clear around left tackle and raced the remaining 47 yards to score.

In the final quarter . . . it appeared that the Bengals might score again . . . marching some 60 yards to the opponent's twenty-yard line before being stopped.

Coming back from their first defeat of the season . . . the Tigers buried Adams State College . . . 53 to 0. The pace was set early in the first period when C. C. marched 80 yards down the field . . . climaxed by Moore going over left tackle for the score . . . and then converting. In the second quarter . . . Ben Hall capitalized following another long series of drives . . . Moore converted. Then . . . freshman Hal McGovern connected with one of the opponent's passes and rode the east sideline stripe for 57 yards . . . crossing the goal standing up . . . Moore again converted. Three minutes into the third quarter . . . Fritz Minuth went through center for the fourth goal of the day. Next to score was Glen Wickhorst on an end run for 12 yards . . . Moore converted for the fourth time. Captain Bill Goodnight took a crack at scoring . . . intercepting a pass and romping 34 yards for another 6 points . . . with Moore making his fifth and final conversion for the day. Hal McGovern went through the Adams line for his second touchdown of the day . . . and Herb Vandemoer gathered in a pass in the end zone to close C. C. scoring.

Cinching the Rocky Mountain Conference . . . Mines took a win over the Tigers . . . 18 to 13 . . . on the day of C. C. Homecoming . . . putting over the

The next game . . . C. C. met Idaho Southern, who boasted a record for the year of "untied, undefeated and unscored on." The Tiger eleven functioned very smoothly . . . and it was not longer than five minutes before Haggin plunged over from the three-yard line to score . . . Moore making the conversion. BASKETBALL

Coming out with second place in the Rocky Mountain Conference . . . the C.C. basketball squad played a very successful season this year . . . having been barely nosed out by Greeley State who placed first in the conference with 5 wins and 3 defeats to C.C.'s 4 wins and 4 defeats.

The Tigers began play this year with four pre-season games against teams organized at Camp Carson and Peterson Field. In this series . . . C.C. took wins over the Carson Quartermasters . . . 73 to 30 . . . Camp Carson Headquarters team . . . 38 to 30 . . . the Third Army All Stars . . . 64 to 31 . . . and Camp Carson Headquarters for the second time . . . 51 to 31.

Intercollegiate play opened . . . C.C. and Adams State tangled and wound up in a tie at the end of the fourth quarter. An overtime was played, and the game ended . . . C.C. 36 . . . Adams 34. In the second game of the series . . . C.C. won by a wider margin . . . having chalked up 37 points to Adams 30 at the final gun.

Returning to Colorado Springs . . . the team organized games with two other service teams. The first . . . a Peterson Field aggregation . . . dealt C.C. its first reverse . . . winning 47 to 41 over the Bengals. C.C. retaliated by trouncing the Carson Station Hospital team . . . 64 to 37.

Next in the season . . . two tilts with the Denver University Pioneers. These were dropped to the Denverites . . . 46 to 41 and 47 to 43.

At this halfway point in the season . . . Duane Quamme held high point honors . . . having personally accounted for 110 Tiger points . . . next came Nick Yeonopolus and Bob Rawlings with 73 and 63 points respectively.

Aggies claimed two wins the following weekend over a tired and sluggish Tiger team . . . Aggies pressing the advantage of height and setting the scores of the doubleheader at 47 to 36 and 45 to 27.

Staging a comeback . . . the Bengals trekked to Denver and dealt Regis two drubbings to the tune of 53 to 51 and 76 to 53.

Following that series . . . a return doubleheader was played with Denver University. The Pioneers copped the first game . . . 48 to 30. Possibly the most exciting of the season's games was the second of this series. Here the Binnsmen fought a nip and tuck game . . . with the stronger Pioneers unfortunately coming out on the short end of a 37 to 36 final score.

Getting back to R.M.C. games . . . Captain Quamme led C.C. in two wins over Mines. It was a long shot, in the last seconds, aimed by Quamme, that gave C.C. the edge on a 43 to 42 final score for one of the games . . . the other was safely ours with a 54 to 42 score.

A crucial clash with Greeley was next on the calendar. A clean sweep of the doubleheader would have given either team the conference crown. Postponing the determining of the conference winner a whole week . . . the Bengals and the Bears split the series . . . C.C. taking its game 44 to 20 . . . Greeley 39 to 34.

On the trail of their first R.M.C. basketball title in years . . . C.C. went to Golden to play Mines two games . . . closing the season. The Mines quintet . . . twice downed by C.C. . . . came back strong and saw C.C. lose two games and the conference crown.

All in all . . . Coach Binns and the team are to be congratulated for their showing this season. The following members of the team were awarded letters . . . Captain Duane Quamme, Captain-elect Ted Long, Rollie Dickison, Dick McKnight, Bill Terry, Herb Vandemoer, Lee Carter, Bob Rawlings and Wally Howard.

This season . . . '42 . . . Jo Irish's Colorado College track and field team . . . varsity and freshmen talent combined for the first time in years . . . pulled down second honors in the Rocky Mountain Conference . . . threatening crown holders.

Spring . . . legged Bill Terry set a new R.M.C. broad jump record . . . spanning 23 feet, 2¾ inches . . . and Frank Elliott matched the 100-yard dash figure that was set in 1920 when he flashed the distance in 10 seconds flat.

Led by Addy with 11 points and Gammon with 2 wins . . . Tigers defeated Adams State . . . thus giving the season a good send-off.

In the second meet . . . a dual with Greeley . . . C.C. took 6 first places . . . but, in the end, was overwhelmed by a larger and better rounded Greeley outfit.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Colorado Mines offered little resistance . . . as indicated by the score of 99 to 32. C.C. tracksters placed first in 11 out of 15 even's.

Conditions were somewhat reversed in the next meet, however . . . when C.C. bowed to the D.U. Pioneers who copped 12 out of 15 wins.

Final meet of the season . . . the R.M.C. finals . . . was held on Washburn Field. Greeley retained the Conference championship by a 23½ point margin in the four-way contest. Colorado College . . . in finishing second . . . matched the Greeley Bears in the number of first places . . . each team taking 6. Montana . . . unexpected contestant in the meet . . . edged past Colorado School of Mines for third honors.

SKIING

Next to our top flight hockey team . . . skiing probably has the best national recognition as a Colorado College sport. At no time has the student body taken advantage, as it might have, of the skiing possibilities offered by the region. Last year . . . skiing was recognized by the college as a minor sport . . . steps were taken toward developing it . . . then came tire and gas rationing . . . and transportation difficulties to Glen Cove on Pikes Peak made it impossible to carry out the system of ski meets which had been planned.

As hockey developed on the campus to national proportions . . . so may skiing . . . when the war is over.

NOTE

It will be noticed that, this year, the sports section of The NUGGET will be several pages shorter than usual. There are several reasons for this . . . (1) R.M.C. rulings for the duration . . . freshmen may be included on the varsity teams . . . cutting out reports on several freshmen contests, such as frosh football . . . (2) Transportation difficulties . . . ruling out several other sports . . . (3) Reduced manpower . . . making it impossible for C.C. to carry on its customary athletic program until after the war.

INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

R. Parvin, W. Clark, F. Steers, H. Vandemoer, R. Burrell, E. Smith, Coach White

INTRAMURALS

Intramurals . . . the C.C. group athletics . . . competed in by all fraternities . . . headed by the Intramural Council . . . made up of a representative from each fraternity. Due to the added pressure of the war and also due to the late starting, this year's Intramurals are far from complete at this time.

All intramural privileges for Beta Theta Pi were revoked by a ruling of the Intramural Council this year . . . however, the Betas were allowed to and did enter teams in the various competitive sports . . . but no credit was given to them for any scores they gained.

SIGMA CHI CHAMPIONS

TOUCHBALL

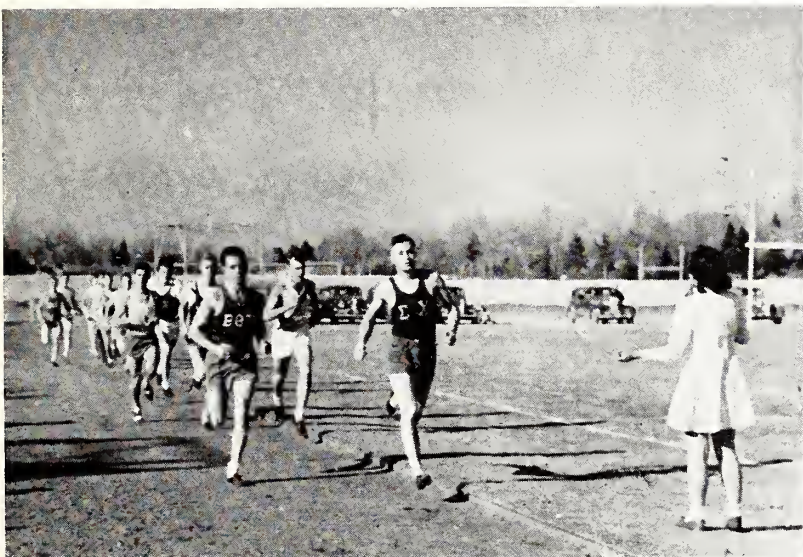

1943 touchball champions . . . Sigma Chis . . . a light, fast-moving team . . . sparked by Harnish . . . tied by the Betas . . . Cushman at their helm. Most of the scoring was done in the last five minutes of almost every game.

Outstanding players, regardless of teams, were the above mentioned and George Mills, Phi Delt; Rod Parvin, Beta; Bill Worth, Sigma Chi; Len Hurley, Phi Gam; Bob Burrell, Kappa Sig; Stan Shikuma, Independent.

Teams	Won	Lost	Tied
Sigma Chi.....	4	1	0
*Beta Theta Pi.....	4	1	0
Phi Gamma Delta.....	2	2	1
Phi Delta Theta.....	2	3	0
Kappa Sigma.....	2	3	0

*Beta Theta Pi gained no points due to loss of intramural privileges.

CROSS COUNTRY START

CUSHMAN . . . WINNER AGAIN

CROSS COUNTRY

Annual cross country race . . . won again by Don Cushman . . . 15:213 minutes . . . not as good as his last year's record . . . 15:103 minutes.

Today, as in past years, the outstanding firms are represented in this year's advertising section. Who knows . . . but sometime in the future some advertiser may glance through this issue and find the pulse of advertising in 1943.
